

Newmarket Academy
Teacher – MPR / Instructor of Science – UTPR
(ability to offer additional subjects would be of benefit)

Do you want to work in an exciting and dynamic environment, in a semi-rural setting between Cambridge & Bury St Edmunds and part of a supportive trust that will be there throughout your training & career development?

If so, then Newmarket Academy may just what you're looking for. The academy is on a journey of rapid transformation and this position represents a unique opportunity to take a lead in the development of the school into an outstanding provider which the community can be proud of.

The school is a growing 11-16 school part of the Samuel Ward Multi Academy Trust, which is at the cutting edge of learning, using innovative technologies and teaching methods to inspire and excite all learners to succeed.

You will join a team of specialists in a department which encourages new, innovative and challenging teaching methods which have underpinned a trajectory of improving results.

What we want:

- An engaging, passionate and hard-working risk taker who can motivate, inspire and challenge both students and colleagues.
- Commitment to ensuring all students make exceptional progress

What we offer includes:

- Supportive and enjoyable environment to work in
- Fantastic CPD Programme
- Career progression opportunities
- Opportunities to go on trips
