Main text of advertisement:

In May 2017 Newmarket Academy was rated 'good' by Ofsted. We invite you to join us as we move this good school to 'outstanding'.

Newmarket Academy is a small, happy and ambitious school. We want to be the best school in the area. We are looking to recruit an ambitious and innovative colleague to play a major role in that journey.

We are looking for a music teacher who shares our passion for teaching and learning, someone who is keen to motivate and challenge our students.

We follow the Edexcel GCSE Music course and approach the teaching of music with a scheme that focuses on developing a passion for music, collaborative working and promotes enjoyment of the creative elements of music.

Our school is incredibly supportive and hungry to secure even further improvements. Staff are supported by an excellent leadership team, who draw on the wider Trust for additional support, professional development and career progression opportunities.

The Academy offers:

- Well-being day each year.
- Opportunity for career progression within first two years.
- Access to the training and professional development programmes of the Teaching and research schools in the Trust
- A very experienced NQT mentor programme
